People from everywhere flock to the great store. The greatest selling ever • known in the history of the store. The rarest prices ever quoted on dependable out and out reliable apparel of standard manufacture. A wonderful trade triumph. A crowning and unprecedented buying and selling achievement that signalized the advantageous money-saving opportunities made possible at this Great October Bargain Sale. The interest of the money saver and the bargain seeker was intensified by the unparalleled under-values advertised from all of the big departments, and from every floor in the building the goods have gone forth with a rush. The magnitude of rare saving chances which have forged onward and grown greater with renewed activity each succeeding day; the worth and choiceness of every article offered on sale; the incontestable truth of every price and every word advertised; the exactness of every representation--all combine to make this

Great October Trade Gathering Event Inimitable and Matchless.

Men's full Suits, consisting of sack coat, punts, and vest, material very furable—neat-looking. There will be no duplicates of these suits at this price after the lot is closed. To early railers, choice of sizes, 34 to 42, only three Seventy-Five for the outfit complete.

$4.98 Men's Single - Brensted Navy-Blue Twilled Suits—sizes 24 to 42—well made—nicely trimmed—a sightly up-to-date suit in every particular. Delays are not profitable when such a rattling-good value and such a neat-looking winter suit is being quoted at such an extremely-low price.

VETERAN'S SUDDEN DEATH.

The Revenge of a Member of the Second Virginia.

WINCHESTER, VA., October 27 .- (Special.)-M. Morgan Brannon, formerly a prominent merchant of this place, and later in business in New York city, was found dead to-day on the road leading from Stephenson's to Jordan's White Sul-phur Springs, in this county. He had left here this morning on business in that section, and was on his way back to the railroad station to take the noon train home, when he was stricken with heartdisease. He had been dead for some time when found. Coroner W. J. Best held an inquest, but ascribed death to natural causes. The deceased was 67 years of age. a Confederate veteran, and is survived by a wife, one son, Charles Brannon, and a daughter, Mrs. Catharine Gaynor. a daughter, Mrs. Catharine Gaynor.

T. W. Kitchen, son of a prominent farmer of Clarke county, and a private in Company A, Second Virginia Regiment, was sent on to the grand jury to-day by Justice Locke, of Stephens City, on the charge of assault upon John Armel, a charge of assault upon John Armel, a well-known resident of the county. When the Second Virginia Regiment was camp at Jacksonville a report was widely circulated in this section that Private Kitchen had been court-martialled and ordered to be shot for desertion. The report was groundless. When the Second was given thirty-days' furlough recently young Kitchen came home and investi-gated the source of the report about him. He thought that he had traced it to Mr Armel, so loading up a gun with mus-tardsced he searched out Mr. Armel and fired the load into him at short range. Armel was peppered, but not badly injured. Kitchen was located only yester-day and placed under arrest.
